A very big Thank You to
Dr. Jason Tramm, our Choir Director and to Nancy Paugh, our Organist tonight and Choir Director/Organist
here at St. Paul's Ocean Grove Church.

There will be a free will offering for the benefit of the local mission of St. Paul's Ocean Grove Church.

Thank you to all who dedicated time and effort to the success of this concert.

Dr. Jason C. Tramm is celebrating his sixteenth year as Director of Music Ministries with the Ocean Grove Camp Meeting Association. Sacred music has been central to his career from a very early age, beginning at age five as a boy soprano soloist at St. Thomas Lutheran Church in West Nyack, NY. His work in the sacred, symphonic and operatic realms have received acclaim both nationally and internationally. Dr. Tramm currently serves as an Associate Professor and Director of Choral Activities at Seton Hall University (where he was named the 2017 University Faculty Teacher of the Year), Executive Director of the Light Opera of New Jersey, Artistic Director of the MidAtlantic Artistic Productions, Music Director of the Taghkanic Chorale (Yorktown Heights, NY), and Principal Guest Conductor of the Long Island Concert Orchestra. Dr. Tramm has conducted in many prestigious venues including Carnegie Hall, Merkin Hall, NJPAC and David Geffen

Hall. He holds degrees from the Crane School (SUNY Potsdam), the Hartt School (University of Hartford) and a Doctoral of Musical Arts from Mason Gross (Rutgers University), where he was the recipient of the prestigious Presidential Fellowship. A frequent guest conductor, Dr. Tramm has led symphonic and operatic performances in Italy, Romania, Albania, Hungary and throughout the United States. Upcoming international guest conducting engagements for the 22-23 season include performances in Italy (Rome and Florence), Austria (Salzburg and Klagenfurt) and Hungary (Budapest). He also is the host/creator of the Music Matters with Jason Tramm podcast on YouTube, which explores musical innovation and self-discovery as seen through the eyes of distinguished artists. The Tramm family is proud to call Ocean Grove their musical and spiritual home during the summer months.
