CALL TO WORSHIP —

O Come, let us sing unto the Lord: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.
 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms. Psalm 95: 1 & 2

- HYMN — "JOYFUL, JOYFUL, WE ADORE THEE" Beethoven

1
 Joyful, joyful, we adore thee,
 God of glory, Lord of love;
 Hearts unfold like flowers before thee,
 Opening to the sun above.
 Melt the clouds of sin and sadness;
 Drive the dark of doubt away;
 Giver of immortal gladness,
 Fill us with the light of day!

2
 All thy works with joy surround thee,
 Earth and heav'n reflect thy rays,
 Stars and angels sing around thee,
 Center of unbroken praise:
 Field and forest, vale and mountain,
 Flowery meadow, flashing sea,
 Chanting bird and flowing fountain,
 Call us to rejoice in thee.

3
 Thou art giving and forgiving,
 Ever blessing, ever blest,
 Well-spring of the joy of living,
 Ocean-depth of happy rest!
 Thou our Father, Christ our brother,
 All who live in love are thine;
 Teach us how to love each other,
 Lift us to the joy divine.

4
 Mortals join the mighty chorus,
 Which the morning stars began:
 Father love is reigning o'er us,
 Brother love binds man to man.
 Ever singing, march we onward,
 Victors in the midst of strife;
 Joyful music leads us sunward
 In the triumph song of life.

HYMN — "O MIGHTY GOD!" text by Erik Routley

1

O mighty God! Creator and Redeemer, in strength enrobed, in majesty arrayed,
above the storms enthroned serene, exalted,
controlling wisely all that you have made:
O mighty God! your blessed promise saves,
your Word is peace, your love is true:
that love is mightier than the raging waves:
Lord, I believe! I trust in you.

2

O blessed Christ! those anguished sailors crying,
"Do you not care that we be cast away?"
found a new question born of awe and wonder:
"Who then is this, whom waves and winds obey?"
O blessed Christ! when hope grows weak and dies, when light burns low, when fails my will,
then let me hear your royal voice arise above the tempest: "Peace! Be still!"

3

O Holy Spirit, rushing wind of heaven, your cosmic power made known when all began: O faithful Spirit, strong, life-giving, tender, gentlest of judges, mightiest of friends: O Holy Spirit!
tell me of my Lord, how high his love, my doubts how base:
show me the things of Christ King adored,
how small my fears, how great his grace!

ANTHEM — "AND THE GLORY OF THE LORD" - from "Messiah" George Frederick Handel

GUEST CONDUCTORS

DR. J. EDWARD HOY received his musical education at Temple University and the Philadelphia Musical Academy. He was honored with the Doctor of Sacred Music degree by Grambling University. Many additional awards have been bestowed upon Dr. Hoy for his consistent dedication to promoting and performing fine music. He founded the very popular "Messiah" festival in Philadelphia and continues as its music director. Dr. Hoy's hymn arrangements appear in "Songs of Zion" and in the "Supplement to the Methodist Hymnal." He has been appointed to the Hymnal Revision Committee of the General Conference of the United Methodist Church. Dr. Hoy will celebrate his 30th Anniversary as Organist-Director at historic Tindley Temple United Methodist Church in Philadelphia.

GORDON TURK is in his twelfth season as Ocean Grove Auditorium Organist. During the rest of the year he serves as organist and choirmaster of St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Wayne, Pennsylvania. He concertizes extensively as an organist as well as appearing as a conductor, composer and harpsichordist. Mr. Turk was a scholarship student at the famed Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia, Pa., and is pursuing further studies at Manhattan School of Music in New York.

ROBERT F. DAVIS has conducted many orchestras and choruses in the greater New York area appearing with Philip Smith, Robert Elmore, Dave Brubeck, Teresa Bowers and David Britton. He has performed in concert halls in New York, Boston, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. Mr. Davis is conductor of the American Chamber Orchestra and the Geistliche Musik Orchestra of New Jersey. At the Aspen Music Festival, his conducting came under the critical analysis of John Nelson. He has studied with Richard Westenburg and Carl Bamberger. Mr. Davis' professional career has included three professorships, conductor-in-residence at four churches, guest conductor of choruses and orchestras and seminar lecturer.

ARTHUR W. CROUTHAMEL, founder and musical director of the Abington Oratorio Choir, a concert ensemble of seventy-five voices, is also music director and organist at the Heidelberg United Church of Christ in Hatfield, Pa. He has studied organ with the late Dr. Harry C. Banks of Girard College and Dr. Keith Chapman, head organist of the Wanamaker store in Philadelphia. He received his master's degree in music supervision and is presently principal of Pennridge Central Junior High School in Perkasia, Pa. Mr. Crouthamel studied choral conducting with Dr. Elaine Brown of Singing City Choir fame.

CHESLEY KAHMANN, composer-pianist, is a graduate of the University of Rochester with a music major from the Eastman School of Music. She did further study in composition at the Peabody Conservatory in Baltimore. She taught music at Oldfields School and later at Brooklyn Friends. Her compositions include works for large and small orchestra, chamber combinations, voice, chorus and piano. She has also written and directed 6 musical plays. In 1971 she became the founder, director and pianist for THE INTERLUDES, a group of women singers. Her records include THE KAHMANN TOUCH, Vols. I, II and III. She lives in Summit, N. J., with her lawyer husband and two trumpet-playing sons.

MR. RALPH WINTERS is a licensed preacher of the United Methodist Church. He directed the choir of Epworth United Methodist Church in Paterson, New Jersey for twelve years. At present he is a member of Hawthorne Gospel Church. He became a proficient vocalist and choral conductor as a result of teaching by several prominent musicians. Mr. Winters serves as director of choirs and as an evangelistic song leader. He is employed by the Board of Education in Bloomfield, New Jersey.

MR. FRANK KUYKENDALL studied voice at the Philadelphia Musical Academy and earned a graduate degree from Temple University where he studied under Dr. Elaine Brown. He is a member of the American Choral Directors Association and holds the Choir Master certificate from the American Guild of Organists. He has been music director of the Abington Choral Club, choirmaster at St. Paul's Reformed Episcopal Church in Oreland, Pa., director of Jenkintown Music Theatre and chairman of the music department at Jenkintown High School. Mr. Kuykendall is a teacher, composer and arranger of music.

MRS. RUTHELAIN McINTYRE has been organist-director at First United Methodist Church in Toms River, New Jersey, for the past nine years. She conducts five singing choirs and three handbell choirs. In addition she is director of vocal music at Freehold Township High School. Mrs. McIntyre is a cum laude graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music where she majored in voice. As a recitalist she has performed in many areas of the United States. Her home is in Whiting, N. J.

GUEST CONDUCTORS

LEWIS A. DANIELS was educated at Drexel University, the Philadelphia Musical Academy and Philadelphia College of the Bible. He served as Minister of Music at Twelfth United Presbyterian Church, Johnson Memorial Methodist Church and Frankford United Methodist Church, all in Philadelphia, and at Community United Methodist Church Roselle Park, N. J., Addisville Reformed Church, Richboro, Pa., and St. John's United Methodist Church, Hazlet, N. J. He has taught workshops, performed at conventions and has been guest conductor for many churches and conferences while being involved in two business enterprises. Mr. Daniels is serving his twentieth year as Director of Music for the Ocean Grove Camp Meeting Association.
